

Vin Deca - Don't You Cry

It's been dark dark dark
I know
Been here
Still here
Will be here with eyes on you
The pain is stark stark stark
I know
Its over now
Over now
Now that you see me

Everyone on those little creatures
Lurking in the deep
I know every one by name
Oh I had them locked and in chains
And there is no way they will ever break free
Didn't you know this oh my child

Don't you cry
Don't you cry
Don't you cry
Dry your eye
Dry your eye
Don't you sigh
Tear tear dry
Tear tear dry
Cry goodbye
Sure a parent may forget a child
I know but that not how I do it

Ever wondered why
Ever pondered why
They testify to you
It was to build you up oh
Now that I got your attention
Today loose the fear
And let me lead you
And I will show you things too wonderful

This is a new day
I made your bondage fade away
I see my face in you
Now forget now forget the things of old
Open your eyes
See a highway in the desert
