Vin Deca - I'm not That Strong

Some will just mystify
Some deny it
But who is like you
Telling the end from the start
Who will hold it like you
Who will cry for the weak
And even die to revive then wake
And kiss the ones doing the kill
Giving them life my oh my

You you you you you you
Would you tell me more about you
I am feeling you
All all all all all all
On your mind is me me me oh oh
I Know
You you you you you you
Who is like you
Who can love like you giving everything
You you you you you you
Who can be like you
Who can talk like you

I need to see your face
Coz I'm not that strong
Please come closer
Let me see your face
Coz I'm not that strong
I need you in this place
Coz I'm not that strong
Grace me up
Come give me that embrace
Coz I'm not that strong

Who will see me like you
Without blame no matter what I do
And always just rectify
Who will hold me like you
You'll be back in a while
And all my tears
Would have been worthwhile
Please help me run till the end
You've given me a life my oh my

I won't defile
I will be holding on to you
Be my strength my oh my
I will be holding on to you
Oh I feel you
Coz I know that you never judge me no no
No you never judge me
