

Vin Deca - Hallelujah

Hate-pie
A dirty way to die
Enemy to peace
Turns everything into pieces
Even the TV would tell you
I won't lie
I've tasted some of it
I've even shared a bit of it
It feels like I'll turn to pieces
But it'll never get the best of me

Coz I'm not gonna eat the hate like a cake
Won't put it in the oven won't let it bake
I'm taking a deep breath
Then I'll sing Hallelujah
You're not gonna eat the hate like a cake
Don't put it in the oven don't let it bake
Take a deep breath
Let's sing Hallelujah

Someone to blame
I've got a name
The reasons are the same
It's everything that is different
You know it's true
It's what you do
Rehearse the hate
I got a bait
Play it on and on and on and on
Till I'm burning
But it should never get the best of me

Hey hey listen
If you are guilt-free
Throw the stone
Hey while you're waiting
Please forgive me
Hey let me tell you
If for every tooth a tooth
If for every eye we pluck an eye
Oh oh the world would be blind
