

Vin Deca - Reconcile

I'm seeing it steal you
It owns you it's got you brother
This thing could kill you
And I can see his soul is on fire too
He's on your shoulders
Too much of a burden to bear
Too much grief
I'm worried about you
I want your relief
Yeah I'm worried about you

Now don't you wait to reconcile
Until tomorrow
You never know
My father used to say
If you lack time and strength
You better borrow
When you wake up
He may be gone
When you wake up
He may be gone

Drop down that offering
Run run run to the brother
Please stop his suffering
Let us see your spirit dance again
Don't wait till tomorrow
Too much of a burden to bear
Too much grief
I'm worried about you
I want your relief
Yeah I'm worried about you

Don't wait till tomorrow
Don't wait till tomorrow
Don't wait till tomorrow
Don't let the son go down
Tomorrow he may be gone
