

Vin Deca – The Walls of Jericho

Oh I see that
You really built a high wall
Worship every idol
And everything
You let in must be so evil
Oh I know
No matter how much I try
You're certainly sure to deny
But guess what
We've been numbering your days

Say your goodbyes
Your time is up
Selling silly lies
Killing'em soft and slowly
And dying from your own folly
Say your goodbyes
Your time is up
Oh you have done enough
Sharing your poison boldly
But now heaven screams
Heaven says No

Watch watch watch
Oh watch
See the walls of Jericho
Coming down
Watch watch watch
Oh watch
See the walls of Jericho
Tumbling down

Oh I see that
You are skilled
You make the sound of deceit so sweet
But you got so much blood on your hands
The blood of all your preachers
And all the ones those you brought to fall
