Vin Deca – Boundaries

All I hear lately
Is it can't be done
Can't be done
All they talk about
Is how It's impossible
All I hear daily
It's never been done before
Done before
What they don't know is this
What I know is this
I already know how the story ends

Please tell these people they wont stop me
Tell them the maker knows ma name
Tell them the Master's waiting for me
He's got table for me
A chair for me
And my name is written on both

Wanna talk about Boundaries
Oh yeah What do you know
Never try again to stop
Because you do not know
Wanna tell me about Boundaries
Oh yeah what do you know
Never try again to stop me
Be sure you do not know

It's not about a maybe
Coz it will be done
His will be done
I was made for this and I am ready
Yet you're sure it's impossible
All you talk about
It's never been done before
Done before
What you don't know is this
What I know is this
I already know how the story ends

Enough is enough
Now why wont you let me do ma thing
What's wrong with you
You Better go tell the Lord his boy is ready
If you can tell me how that Ocean knows its bounds
Then We'll talk
Now would you just shut up shut up
Let me ma thing
