

Vin Deca – I'll Be Here

Its been burning
Yeah I know
I see from here
Toss and turning
Feel like dying
Sure I know

From the highest heaven
Till the devil's den
From every mountain every valley
Till the fountain there in Bali
From the darkest days
When the sun doesn't come around
Till all the blackest of the nights
I'll be here
I'll be your light

I'll be here when you need me

Leviathan's having his grip on you
He thinks
But the fire only purifies
I Know
I've been there
So give me a minute
Please give me a minute
