Vin Deca - Rivers Of Water

Hello Vine
Here is a branch
Getting ready to shine
Glory be thine
Everything for the fruit
Holy and divine
Completely blameless and pure
Let me drink from your waters
Never to be the same
No thirst again
I'll be walking on air
Whenever you demand
Keep you carry me
With your tender care

No one will be able to stop me
Oh I know someday I will be all that you said
And everything set against me works for me
Oh I know it someday I will be all that you saw
Come fill me up
I want rivers of water
Rivers of water
Flowing out of me Yeah

Come fill me up
I want rivers of water
Living water
Flowing out of me yeah

Hold me close
Please don't let go
Wake me up from the doze
Open my eyes
Show me more the light
That keeps me upright Yeah
Let me remind about you
Let me show how it is with you
Let me give everything you gave
Let me be brave
Never let me cave in no no

No one will be able to stop me
Oh I know someday I will be all that you said
And everything set against me works for me
Oh I see it someday I will be all that you saw
I'll be by your side
Void of every teardrop
On the mountain top
You know You know
I won't be here without you.
I'll be singing a loud
Shutting up every doubt about you and me
I got your light shining on me
