

Vin Deca – Believe and Hope

Oh Father
I'm coming to you on behalf of a friend
I know I got issues
But they can wait
Oh Father
My hope is that you will revive in the end
Coz we've heard the things you can do

Doctors telling him
It is out of hand
While calling names we don't understand oh
He needs a miracle miracle
He needs nothing less than a miracle
They've been telling him
He should just get ready
Preparing us we may need to bury
He needs a miracle miracle
He needs nothing short of a miracle

I believe and hope
Nothing is way too hard for you
Oh Father
Heal him, heal him, heal him, heal him,
We'll be shouting out in a bit
I believe and hope
There's nothing in the world you couldn't do
So Father heal him, heal him, heal him, heal him
We'll be shouting out in a bit

Oh Father
One single word
I know it will be heard
Even Seas and seasons hear you
Oh I raise my hands to you
I hold them up to you for what you will do
For the things you've done
You make rivers turn around
Refine like silver
And deliver
