

Vin Deca – GO!

I have been there
I won't be worrying for you hm hm
I know it too
I won't be sorry for you hm hm
I know when trouble
Is so been long as the Nile
In just a while
Things will be turning for you
I know

I know you'll make
Coz you will fight
Till you see the light
I know you'll make
Coz I've been praying
I've been up all night
I know you'll make
I've got my phone
You won't be alone
I know you'll make
I remind you

Go go go go
Go go go go
Show them how its done
Get ready and run
And Just
Move move move move
Move move move
Don't you turn
Don't look back
Don't wait for the sun

It will be little that you'll loose in the fire
Only your strings will burn
And Free up your wings
You'll be perfect
Everyone will admire
And even higher than the eagles You'll fly
I Know
